

The EUROPEAN CONSERVATIVE

THE FALL EDITION OF THE EUROPEAN CONSERVATIVE — LAUNCH EVENT: SEPTEMBER 20TH IN BUDAPEST

Posted on September 14, 2021

We are marking the publication of the Fall edition—Issue No. 20—with a three panels with distinguished guests from across Europe. Watch the livestream on Facebook.

Category: Events

To mark the publication of the new Fall 2021 edition, we are having an event on Monday, September 20, beginning at 12:00 CEST in Budapest. We shall begin with an informal luncheon, followed by a series of panel discussions around themes that are recurring in the pages of the magazine. The day will end with a reception.

TIMES: Informal luncheon at 12:00, welcome at 13:00, three panel discussions from 13:30-18:15, reception at 18:30.

VENUE: Lónyay Hatvany Villa, Csónak utca 1, Budapest 1015.

WELCOME REMARKS:

- István Kiss, executive director of the Danube Institute
- John O'Sullivan, president of the Danube Institute
- Alvino-Mario Fantini, editor-in-chief of The European Conservative

PANELS:

I. Conservatives in the Academy

- Charles Coulombe (Vienna)
- Misa Djurkovic (Belgrade)
- Wolfgang Fenske (Berlin)
- Attila K. Molnar (Budapest)
- Calum T. Nicholson (London/Budapest)

Moderator: Péter Pasztor, editor of Országút

II. Conservatives and the Media

- Francesco Giubilei (Rome)
- David Martin Jones (London)
- Birgit Kelle (Düsseldorf)
- Anne-Élisabeth Moutet (Paris)
- Zoltan Szalai (Budapest)

Moderator: Péter Heltai, strategic communications manager at the Mathias Corvinus Collegium

III. Conservatives and the Market

The EUROPEAN CONSERVATIVE

- Stjepo Bartulica (Zagreb)
- Benjamin Harnwell (Rome)
- Lorenzo Montanari (Washington, DC)
- Gladden Pappin (Dallas/Budapest)
- Pater Edmund Waldstein (Heiligenkreuz)

Moderator: Alvino-Mario Fantini, editor-in-chief, The European Conservative

A LIVE STREAM WILL BE AVAILABLE ON OUR FACEBOOK EVENTS PAGE.